From the Diocese:

We have begun the second year of the Pastoral Renewal. We thank you for your commitment to the Mission of Christ in the past year, and we continue in our ministry to strengthen our parish communities on this path of renewal! Let's work together to inspire the entire community to cast our nets into the deep!

Happy Thanksgiving everyone!

Inspired by the words from 1 Chronicles 29:13: "Now, our God, we give you thanks and praise your glorious name," we are reminded of the gratitude we owe for the privilege of walking this journey of faith together as a diocesan family.

To our dedicated parish staff, clergy, and ministers, we extend our heartfelt appreciation for your commitment to our Renewal mission. May you have beautiful Thanksgiving celebrations with your family and parish community this weekend.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time: October 13, 2024

I write to deadlines and to available space. I allot the time and space required for the project and move on. For many, especially those who procrastinate, this is difficult to do. Many people yearn to achieve things, but they don't burn. In today's Gospel, the rich, young man yearns for salvation, but he isn't burning. He is willing to do the minimum to gain eternal life, but he is very hesitant to step outside his comfort zone and go the extra mile. He is much like many of us. Do we burn with a passion for eternal life? Are we willing to do more than the minimum, which may be in our comfort zone, to gain eternal life? We may have good intentions, but are good intentions going to help us meet the deadline?

We fool ourselves if we think we can gain eternal life by our own merit. We need wisdom which comes from God. We need the Word of God to judge the "intentions of the heart." "For humans, [salvation] is impossible, but not for God." Today, let us pray for the wisdom of God to fill our hearts so that we may give ourselves over to God. Then we can step out of our comfort zone and burn with a desire to serve God.
