From the Diocese:

Remembrance Day - Nov 11: This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community, and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world. Canadians pause in silence on November 11 to remember those who died from war, and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community, and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world

Pray with Bishop McGrattan - Red Wednesday Mass.

The clattering coins of the wealthy donations likely turned heads. But it's the poor widow's offering that gets Jesus really excited. Clink. Clink. Two copper coins. A penny's worth. Hardly noticeable, really. Except to Jesus. He's so moved by the widow's generosity; he calls the disciples over. A teachable moment for them. And for us. Be it our treasure, talent or time, it's hard not to be tightfisted with our "last penny." I would donate but... I would be more patient but... I would volunteer but... It's so easy to rationalize it to ourselves. Now, imagine if the boy in John 6.9 had done that with his loaves and fish. "Sorry, Jesus. I can't. I need it. I'm hungry. Besides, it wouldn't feed 5,000 people anyway." But because Jesus asks, the boy - hungry as he is - gives. Because God asks, the widow - poor as she is - gives.

Their trust in God helps them see the opportunity of giving. It inspires true generosity. And God works through them. God calls us to be cheerful givers. To give what we can with gratitude. To be generous, simply because God asks us through the needs of others. Generosity is not about turning heads; it's about touching hearts. What time, talent or treasure is God asking of you this week? It's a great opportunity. Are you all in?
